- Final version: February 15, 2015

Topics of Interest

We welcome papers including, but not limited to, the following topics

- On-line Analytical Process (OLAP)
- Data warehouse architectures
- Data warehouse design
- Data warehouses and data mining
- Cloud BI
- Data warehouses and Web
- Data extraction, transformation, and loading (ETL)
- Metadata
- Data integration
- Multidimensional query languages, OLAP algebra
- Maintenance and administration of data warehouses
- Multidimensional modeling
- Optimization and tuning

Submissions

All aspects of the submission and notification process will be handled electronically. All papers should be submitted in electronic format using EasyChair. The submission web site is: https://www.easychair.org/conferences/?conf=eda2015demonstration. The deadline for paper submission is on January 7, 2015, midnight (Brussels time). No late papers will be accepted.

Number of Pages

Submissions (including bibliographic references) may not exceed 4 pages.

Format

Papers can be written in French or in English. They must be submitted as PDF documents, and must follow the style of the document templates by RNTI available at the address
